Web Developer

Hi, I'm Munaf Badarpura From India

About Me

Hello! I'm Munaf, a dedicated B.Sc. IT student with a passion for web development and new technologies. As a budding developer, I am constantly exploring new technologies and honing my skills in HTML, CSS, JavaScript, and modern web frameworks like express for backend. My journey in web development began with a curiosity about how websites are built and a desire to create intuitive, user-friendly online experiences.
